This is the focus of the request for support:

- We understand that the RTL process is collaborative and we have a joint responsibility for the outcomes.
- If this request involves class or systems-level work that requires an RTL to be in classrooms or playgrounds, the school will inform whānau. Submitting this request confirms that whānau have been notified.

We understand that we will all have the follow obligations and responsibilities

- Identified needs of ākonga remains a top priority and is central to the support
- Actively support the plan developed and agreed upon
- Keep all commitments and meeting deadlines, hui, agreed actions or timeframes
- Communicate to the team any factors that may influence the outcome of the support
- I/we have the right to withdraw consent or decline services to the RTL service at anytime
